

THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35406

January 13, 1986

MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT

Fourteen entries have been received for the 1986 Miss Shelton State Pageant scheduled to be held on Saturday, February 15, at 7 p.m. in the auditorium of the Junior College.

A workshop for contestants will be held in the auditorium on Saturday, January 15, from 8:30 a.m. - 3 p.m. The first meeting of all contestants will be Tuesday, January 14, at 12 noon in room 87.

TCP PRESENTS AGNES OF GOD

The Tuscaloosa Community players under the direction of Paul Looney will present the third production of this year's season, "Agnes of God," an exciting and provocative drama in which a hardened psychiatrist confronts a Mother Superior, a naive postulant, and the mystery of an infant's strangled corpse found in a convent. The play is scheduled for January 22-26 at the Bama Theatre. The curtain will rise at 8 p.m. on the three evening performances January 22-25 and a 2:30 p.m. matinee on Sunday, January 26. To obtain tickets, contact the Bama Theatre.

BROWN BAG SPEAKERS SERIES SCHEDULED

The new Options and Sex Equity program of the college will sponsor a four-part Brown Bag Speakers Series beginning January 23. The meetings will be held in room 87 of the Junior College and are free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served beginning at 11:30 p.m. and the program will be from 12 noon - 1 p.m.

Speakers scheduled for the series include Thursday, January 23, Margaret Kearcy, author of childrens book and anthropology instructor at the University of Alabama, "When Opportunity Knocks, Open the Door;" Thursday, January 30, Dr. Alice Viladsden, Past president, Alabama Junior and Community College Association, Calhoun Community College "Women in a Man's World;" Thursday, February 2 Dr. Carol Zippert, President of West Alabama Community College, Eufaw, Alabama, "The Art of Access;" Thursday, February 13, Dr. Cathy Randall, Eye Witness News Anchor, Channel 33 Television, Director of Computer Based Honors Program, University of Alabama, "The Juggling Act - Family and Career."

The purpose of the series according to project directors Paula Sue Hayes and Lucy Kubiszyn is to bring outstanding Women to the college in an effort to to help women of this area meet the challenges of today.

FOUNDATION NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Malone have donated a Wullitzer organ to the Shelton State Foundation to be used by the music department of the Junior College Division. Kirsten Malone is a member of the Shelton Singers.

The Executive Committee to the Shelton State Foundation will have their winter meeting Wednesday, January 15, at 4 p.m. in Dr. Sumners's office.

There will be a working dutch lunch for all Foundation board members on Wednesday, January 15, at noon at O'Riley's resturant at the Quality Inn on McFarland Blvd.

Anyone interested in nominating someone to fill the two vacancies currently existing on the Foundation Bard may obtain a form from Lucy Kubiszyn at the Junior College and Lyda Black at the Technical Division.

C. Britt Turner IV. has been reelected to represent the faculty and staff of the Junior College Division on the Foundation Board of Directors for another year.

NEW LIBRARY EXHIBIT OPENS

"Christopher P.H. Murphy (1869-1939): A Retrospective fifty watercolors by the Savannah artist, is currently on exhibit in the library of the Junior College Division. The exhibit which will continue through February 7 is open to the public during regular library hours, Monday - Thursday, 8 a.m. - 9 p.m., and Friday, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

The exhibition, reviewed in the October 1985 issue of SOUTHERN LIVING magazine, is a major landmark in the emerging field of Southern art. Chrisopher P.H. Murphy was a leader in Savannah's artistic community from the turn of the century until his death in 1939. His vocation as a commercial painter and his avocation as a watercolorist connect two main themes in American art: the 19th century artist as craftsman and the 20th century as a product of the European academic tradition.

Although he did not seek recognition during his lifetime, Christopher P.H. Murphy's work was selected for exhibition of the Telfair Academy, the Corcoran Gallery of Art, the Art institute of Chicago, the Southern Art League and the American and New York Watercolor Societies.

The exhibition has been made possible by a gift from Miss Margaret A. Murphy. The circulation of the exhibitions is made possible by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts through the Southern Arts Federation of which the Alabama council for the Arts is a member.

FREE TUITION TO SENIOR CITIZENS

Shelton State along with the other two-year institutions in Alabama now offer no-cost tuition to people 60 years of age and over. This new program which was approved by the State Board of Education at its December meeting will begin Spring quarter and applies to any credit course. Fees and books are not included.

This program, known as the Senior Adult Scholarship Program, is designed to help older citizens who would like to pursue academic courses, learn a new trade or who are simply looking for a new enrichment of their lives.

More detailed information will be available by February 1, 1986. To be put on the mailing list for the program, contact the office of dean of instruction for the Junior College Division.

DON'T FORGET TO WATCH WEEKEND WITH THE STARS FOR CEREBRAL PALSY, JANUARY 18-19, TO BENEFIT PERSONS WITH CEREBRAL PALSY IN WEST ALABAMA.